PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES

I am a very committed person who adopts a conscientious and proactive approach to work to achieve and maintain excellent standards. I am a compassionate person, very sociable, respectful and a team builder/player. This makes it very easy for people to approach me for us to work together. I am much focused; therefore, I accept failures as challenges and not constraints and I can easily adapt to any environment if the need arises. I possess a nature-loving character, a desire to learn, and a penchant for teamwork.
